- 3) Roll Call of Directors

  - b. Directors Excused: None
  - c. Directors Absent: None
  - d. Members Present: None
  - e. Guests Present: None
- 4) Open Forum Chuck ONeal was unable to put together a synopsis, but went over the options we have been discussing. Option A: Some kind of live fair. Option B: Hybrid Fair. Option C: Virtual fair. He wants to under promise and over deliver. Laird and Stacey Nelson both like moving forward with the hybrid fair with space to move in a looser or tighter direction depending on the circumstances at the time of fair. Dale Adams suggested starting set up earlier due to social distancing. Kristy Parker wanted to clarify we are talking about promising a hybrid fair. That virtual fair and some kind of live fair are second options to the hybrid fair. The board concluded this statement was true. Laird Nelson wanted to make certain we include all kids from home ec to market. There was discussion about vet checks. It was noted that we do not always have a vet on site, some years they were just on call. Skylar Storton felt that the kids would be less disappointed in the hybrid show than if we did not try to do anything. It was agreed that the auction would be virtual regardless of how the fair is held. Motion to move forward with a hybrid fair made by John Wolfe, seconded by Chuck ONeal. Motion passed.
- 5) Adjournment: Dale Adams moved to adjourn, John Wolfe seconded adjourned at 8:22pm

Respectfully Submitted,
Wendy Adams, RJF Secretary
